Kevin T Halpin (he/him) Director/Choreographer - Kevin is in his 25th year at SUNY Cortland, having relocated his family here to establish and develop the Musical Theatre Program in August 1999. Prior to Cortland, Kevin was Director of Dance and Musical Theatre Specialist at Millikin University in Decatur, Illinois. As a performer, Kevin is a proud member of Actors Equity and the Screen Actors Guild having worked across the U.S, in New York City, in Europe and the Caribbean. As an SDC director/choreographer his work has been seen throughout the U.S. and New York City. Some favorite professional credits include West Side Story, A Chorus Line, Pippin, Jesus Christ Superstar, The Producers, and his award-winning production of Chicago. Long time Cortland audience members may remember his Department productions of Spring Awakening, Violet, Pal Joey, A Little Night Music, Sweeny Todd, Crazy for You and Chicago. More recent shows include Blithe Spirit, Company, Seussical, and the New Works Development Partnership with CreateTheater productions of The Bone Harp and In Emily's Words. The latter won several awards in the NYC New Works Festival, including Best actress for one of tonight's cast members, Olivia Celis and Best Musical. This production, and all of his work, is dedicated to his wife Cindy and their greatest collaborations; Aisling and Cassidy Halpin. With them anything is possible, without them nothing matters.

Ben Kapilow (he/him) Music Director - Ben is excited to be music directing his first show as Assistant Professor/Music Director for the Performing Arts Department at SUNY Cortland. He comes to Cortland having spent six seasons as the Resident Music Director for the Media Theatre for the Performing Arts in Media, PA. He has also worked as a pianist and music director at the Walnut Street Theatre, Fulton Theatre, Candlelight Theatre, and Temple University. As a composer, he has pieces published with Alfred Music, Chorister's Guild, and Heritage Press. Active in education, he has presented at the National Conference on Keyboard Pedagogy, Pennsylvania Music Teachers Association Conference, and the Expand Online Conference, and he has published articles for the Colourful Keys Blog and for Piano Magazine. He graduated Pi Kappa Lambda from the Peabody Institute with an MM in Music Composition, and he graduated Phi Beta Kappa from Swarthmore College with a BA in Music and Psychology. www.benkapilow.com

Scott Holdredge (he/him) Scenic Designer - is excited to be working with Create Theatre on this production. He is a full time faculty member and Scenic Designer at SUNY Cortland in the Musical Theater Program. In the summer he is the Scenic & Lighting Designer at Franklin Stage Company. He also helps run the student intern and young professionals program. Scott has designed scenery and lights for Anchorage Opera, Scenic Designs for Cortland Repertory Theatre, Syracuse Opera, Syracuse University, and a few area high school theatres. Scott's work has been seen in New York City, Los Angeles, Alaska, and San Diego across the genres of theatre, corporate events, theme parks, haunted houses and film.

Simone Scalici (he/him) Technical Director - Simone came to SUNY Cortland by way of Syracuse Stage, Colgate University, Glimmerglass Opera, Orpheus Theatre, SUNY Oneonta, and many more. From Architecture to Industrial Design, from auto restoration to hobbies with his kids, he dives head first into unique projects with passion and dedication. He loves the creative journey from napkin sketch to reality and working with the students in making dreams come true.

Mark Reynolds (he/him) Costume Designer - Mark's costume designs have appeared in over 30 production's here at SUNY Cortland. Favorites include: Cabaret, Sweeney Todd, Lysistrata, Blithe Spirit, Spring Awakening, Possessing Harriet, and Sweet Charity. Regional design credits include, The Kennedy Center Theatre for Young Audiences, Rivendell Theatre Ensemble, Timeline Theater, Theatre by the Lake, The Hangar, Cortland Repertory Theatre, Shakespeare in Delaware Park, among others. His work is published in Theatre as Human Action: An Introduction to Theatre Arts by Thomas S. Hischak. Artist in Residence: Gannon University and University at Buffalo. SUNY Cortland directing credits include: Love Billy, The Children's Hour, Top Girls, The Laramie Project, Sunday in the Park with George, The Glass Menagerie, The Crucible and The Rocky Horror Show. He had the privilege of being an improv instructor for the Alan Alda Center for Communicating Science at Stony Brook University. Mark is currently serving as senior class advisor for MT25 Senior Showcase and as Board President at Cortland Repertory Theatre. BA; Costume Design, University at Buffalo. Insta @gunclenmark Art is risk.

Joel Pape (he/him) Lighting and Sound Designer - Over the last 25 years, Joel's designs have been seen and heard throughout the United States, including Arizona, Michigan, New York, New Jersey, and Florida. Following a lighting Design Fellowship at Lincoln Center Institute, highlights have included an Assistant Lighting Design credit for the original Off-Broadway production of The Vagina Monologues with Eve Ensler and Lighting Designer for Borrowed Light from Net of Souls III at Lincoln Center's Alice Tully Hall. While in New York City, Joel served as Assistant Lighting Designer for numerous designers including Beverly Emmons and Clifton Taylor. Joel also designed lights for the Asian premiere of the chamber opera Wenji, co-produced by the Asia Society and the Hong Kong Arts Festival. Locally, Joel has designed for Cortland Repertory Theatre and The Kitchen Theater Company in Central New York.

Mark Carpenter (he/him) Scenic Carpenter - Mark began my professional theatre career as a scenic carpenter for Tri Cities Opera in Binghamton, New York; eventually taking an assistant technical director position. He is currently a card holding member of IATSE Local 54 out of Binghamton. He is proud to be a part of SUNY Cortland performing arts department creative team.

Stacey Goldyn (she/her) Costume Shop Manager - Stacey holds a BA in Fine Arts and Art History from SUNY Geneseo and a MS in Arts Administration from the University of Oregon. Her career took her around the United States until she settled in Cortland, New York with her family, and established her own local sewing and alterations business, Magpie Custom Creations, in downtown Cortland. Costume construction is Stacey's first love, and she is thrilled to be a long term member of the Department of Performing Arts.

Jon Keefner (He/Him) Drums - Jon is excited to be returning to the SUNY Cortland pit as the drummer for By Any Other Name. Outside of the theater you can catch him playing with the Travis Knapp Trio or the Sing Trece Band as well as teaching future young musicians through the Cortland HS Modern Band program. Recent theatre experiences include: Sweet Charity (SUNY Cortland-Bass), Cabaret (SUNY Cortland- Drums), Honk! (Trumansburg HS- Drums) and Rodgers & Hammerstein's Cinderella (Cortland HS- Keys 2).

Benjamin M. Wells (he/him) Production Manager/Publicity Coordinator - Ben comes to SUNY Cortland after spending the previous two decades in public education, having previously taught Choral/Vocal Music, Music Theory and Music History in Cortland Enlarged City School District. He directed the Cortland Youth Bureau Drama Program from 2003-2023 and continues as an active member and adjudicator for the New York State School Music Association. Ben holds a Master of Music Degree in voice performance from Syracuse University as well as a Bachelor of Music Degree in Education from Nazareth College of Rochester with a double major in voice and harpsichord, and a minor in bassoon. He can often be seen involved in musical theatre around Central NY including on stage with companies such as CNY Playhouse and Rarely Done Productions, playing piano in the pit for local college and high school productions or designing and constructing sets or costumes. Beyond his many theatre activities, Ben is also a passionate volunteer and board member at the Cortland County Historical Society.
